Contrary terms and conditions and other contrary provisions tendered by Supplier are expressly rejected. These Purchase Terms include referenced Exhibits A-F which are attached hereto and made a part of these Purchase Terms.

3.1 Supplier agrees to be compensated and reimbursed for Services provided in accordance with the description specified and pricing methodologies set forth in the SOW. Prices shall not vary unless mutually agreed in writing by both parties. Supplier will not commence any Services for SAP or incur any related expenses unless it has received an SAP purchase order expressly authorizing such Services or expense..

Except as otherwise agreed, the payment period commences on the later of the day after receipt of verifiable invoice (evidenced by the mailroom receipt stamp) or the day on which the contract goods, works, and services are received from Contractor at the appointed place. The payment period is sixty (60) calendar days. Contractor shall grant 2% cash discount in respect of payments made within thirty (30) days, unless otherwise agreed. If SAP is required to withhold income or corporation tax or a similar tax from any payment to the Supplier under this Agreement SAP shall be entitled to withhold or deduct such tax from the gross amount to be paid.
