

SAP Data Enrichment and Classification OnDemand
Supplemental Terms and Conditions

SAP and Customer have entered into an agreement for the purchase of certain SAP products and services ("Agreement") pursuant to which Customer is purchasing SAP Data Enrichment and Classification OnDemand. SAP Data Enrichment and Classification OnDemand is deemed part of the Service (as defined in the General Terms and Conditions for SAP Cloud Services) and is provided under the terms and conditions of the Agreement. The Agreement includes an Order Form, the General Terms and Conditions for SAP Cloud Services, these supplemental terms and conditions (the "Supplement") and any Schedules referenced by those documents. This Supplement and any modifications to the Agreement made herein apply solely to SAP Data Enrichment and Classification OnDemand and not to any other SAP product or service.

1. In using the Service, Customer will provide SAP certain business information concerning the Customer, its suppliers and/or its customers ("Customer Content"). SAP may use this Customer Content to provide the Service, including any Additional Services (defined below). Customer acknowledges that SAP may retain the Customer Content for a period of up to eighteen (18) months following termination or expiration of this Order Form, unless Customer expressly requests return of the Customer Content in writing. SAP may make available to Customer through the Service certain content that is proprietary to third party vendors. Use of some of this content may require Customer to enter into separate agreement terms with the applicable third party vendor and SAP will advise Customer when this is required. All third party content that is provided as part of the Service must only be used in conjunction with the Service. Customer may not make copies of all or part of the third party content except as expressly permitted by this Agreement. Use of third party content provided as part of the Service is subject to the terms in Attachment 1 to this Supplement.
2. SAP may perform off-line back-ups of the Service resulting in the unavailability of the Service. SAP shall endeavor to limit the number and length of such periods of unavailability. Further, such off-line back-ups may result in loss of Customer Data including reports and user creation data. SAP assumes no liability for the loss of such data in performing off-line back-ups. SAP has no obligation to monitor the Service in a manner that allows SAP to detect events or circumstance that could lead to the Service being unavailable. Customer acknowledges that SAP makes no warranty as to the level of availability of the Service.
3. Spend Volume
 - (a) Customer may have an unlimited number of Named Users access the Service. The fees for the Service are based on Spend Volume. Spend Volume means the total amount of a legal entity's annual expenditure for the procurement of all direct and indirect goods and services. In order for Affiliates of Customer to be permitted to use the Service, Customer must license the aggregate Spend Volume in Customer's legal entity and each Affiliate for which it will grant access to the Service, or for which Spend Volume will be processed.
 - (b) Customer warrants that the Spend Volume licensed under the Order Form accurately reflects the aggregate Spend Volume of Customer's legal entity and the legal entity of each Affiliate using the Service or for which Spend Volume will be processed. Further, Customer shall without undue delay report Spend Volume in excess of the Spend Volume licensed under the Order Form and any other information reasonably necessary to calculate the amount of fees payable under the Order Form to SAP. In the event an Affiliate is divested during the term of this Order Form and Customer promptly notifies SAP in writing of the date of such divestiture, the divested Affiliate may continue to access the Service for the shorter of the remainder of the current term of the Order Form or a period not to exceed twelve months after such divestiture, at which time the divested Affiliate will no longer be permitted to access the Service or have its Spend Volume processed through the Service. During such period, Customer shall be responsible for the acts and omissions of such divested Affiliate as if it were an Affiliate in accordance with the terms of the Agreement.
 - (c) Without limiting Customer's obligations under Section 3(b), Customer may add additional Spend Volume during the Initial Term (as defined below) or any Renewal Term by executing an addendum to the Order Form. The term of each addendum shall be co-terminus with the then-current term of this Order Form irrespective of the effective date of such addendum. The term discount applicable to such additional Spend Volume (if any) will be based on the remaining portion of the then-current term. Upon renewal of the Order Form, the term for all Spend Volume added to this Order Form prior to renewal shall be the same as specified in the Order Form, unless the parties agree to extend the term in the addendum.
4. Customer may license test tenants that are described on the Site (each a "Test Tenant"). No more than fifty (50) Named Users may access a single Test Tenant. Use of the Test Tenant is limited to an aggregate of 10,000 records. Customer is entitled to utilize such Test Tenants for non-productive testing and evaluation in accordance with the Documentation. The Support Services Document attached hereto shall not apply to any such non-productive system.

5. Customer Obligations and Prerequisites

- (a) Customer shall fulfill the prerequisites and customer requirements listed on the Site or made available in release notes throughout the term of the Order Form.
 - (b) In no event shall Customer or any Named User submit any personally identifiable information for storage or processing by the Service. Personally identifiable information is any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person ('data subject'); an identifiable person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identification number or to one or more factors specific to his physical, physiological, mental, economic, cultural or social identity.
6. If Customer elects to have Additional Services provided by a third party, SAP shall have no liability for any defect or failure of the Service caused by such third-party services, and Customer shall not be entitled to any reduction in fees for the Service. Prior to allowing any third party services provider to access the Service, Customer shall have such third party services provider execute a confidentiality no less restrictive than that which is in place between SAP and Customer. SAP may deny access to the Service to any third party which SAP determines in its sole discretion poses a security risk or other risk to SAP systems, data or intellectual property. Customer remains liable to SAP for any acts or omissions of any third party accessing the Service under Customer's account. Customer acknowledges that in performing the Additional Services, there is a risk that Customer Data will be lost or inadvertently shared with third parties. SAP assumes no responsibility for the acts or omissions of third party service providers, including loss or disclosure of Customer Data resulting from the acts or omissions of such third party services providers.
