

Get Ahead of the Curve with SAP® Education

The Best-Run Businesses Run SAP™

Ahead of the curve

Ahead of the curve

You want to get ahead – and stay ahead – of the curve by providing your employees and consultants with expert training that accelerates time to value, maximizes billable days, and minimizes opportunity costs. But where do you begin? How do you deliver convenient access to the knowledge that will put your consultants ahead of the competition?

SAP® Education offerings for training and industry-recognized certification can make your workforce invaluable to customers wanting to speed business adoption and enhance the value of their SAP investments.

Our partner training and certification is:

- Accessible. You get easy access to the training content your consultants need, in a variety of formats for flexible consumption – including partner-specific on-site training, virtual live classroom, e-learning, mobile delivery, and more.

- Innovative. Continuously updated content, created in collaboration with SAP software developers, covers cutting-edge topics including SAP HANA® platform and mobile – so you can get to market first with the latest technologies and services.
- Affordable. A broad range of courses and software – including SAP Learning Hub – is packaged to fit your needs while dramatically reducing training costs.

SAP Education makes training as realistic and hands-on as possible with a choice of easy-to-use, accessible training solutions.

SAP Learn Now mobile app is a free app that gives consultants on-the-go access to the training they need to maintain their competitive edge, helping them get the most from course content and community-based learning. The app makes it easy to select and sign up for classes, discover prerequisites and follow-up training, and access podcasts, videos, e-pubs, and PDFs.

SAP Learning Hub offers easy subscription-based access to up-to-date learning materials in a hosted solution. Learners can access training 24x7 from any Web-enabled computer, no installation required. SAP Learning Hub includes e-learning titles, online knowledge products, and classroom participant handbooks.

SAP Certification

Empower your consultants with authorized associate- and professional-level certification from SAP. Prepare with our quality curriculum available on-site or through virtual live classrooms, mobile, e-learning, and accelerated learning packages. Our comprehensive certification program lets you access the training, materials, and computer-based self-assessment test you need to evaluate and certify your staff. Exams are available at SAP or Pearson VUE facilities worldwide.

SAP Education develops and delivers partner learning packages whose content, price, and flexible consumption options can lower costs and save billable days.

Affordable training options include SAP Learning Hub, a hosted solution that provides instant online access to all of our e-learning titles, online knowledge products, and classroom participant handbooks.

With SAP Accelerated Learning packages, your consultants spend less time away from the office. Remote training in the form of virtual live classrooms and e-academies makes it easy to get trained on new deployments and releases, at lower cost. Or choose private training delivered at your facility by an SAP instructor, customized to fit your chosen course structure, topics, and materials.

Benefits for partners

Benefits for partners

SAP Education can help your organization run better with accessible, innovative, and affordable training. Partner training and certification from SAP Education helps your business:

- Accelerate time to value
- Maximize billable days
- Minimize opportunity costs

Our reputation as a leading IT training provider was built on our classroom training, then expanded in scope to meet the needs of a changing marketplace with virtual classes, mobile, and e-learning formats.

In 2012, SAP Education delivered more than 29,000 training courses to partner consultants and trained nearly 55,000 people through e-learning and e-academy formats. The result: Your team stays up-to-date on the latest innovations. Consultants learn wherever and whenever works best for them. And you can dramatically reduce your total cost of enablement.

With SAP certification, your consultants are empowered to demonstrate superior expertise, for a powerful competitive advantage.
